Absence of Representative Joseph Promotes House Business.

Airs of the Senate May Make Trouble -Bills Passed During the

It is thought that if Representative Joeph can be kept busy on the special Louislana Purchase exposition investigatbe committee (imposing name, isn't it?) the Legislature may succeed in cleaning up its business by the sixtleth day, al though there is an unprecedented influx of bills. The total number introduced in both houses to date is 258, as against 243 on the same day of the last session. On the corresponding day of the last session the Senate had in 130 and the House 113; this year the Senate has only 88 bills, but the House has 170

Joseph Is Useful.

Mr. Joseph does not realize how much tes he consumes in making motions to ourn, suggesting impossible amendats and making useless arguments, nor at the members until Thursday night, when, in Joseph's absence, seven measwhen, in Joseph's absence, seven measures were passed on third reading in a minety minutes, without a negative vote. A man of such positive convictions as Xr. Joseph is undoubtedly useful. He more than any other member, is responsible for the stand taken by the House against juggling with State funds in the matter of bounties and the exposition fund but he lacks discrimination. He will devote as much time to an argument over the dotting of an "i" or the crossing of a "i" as he will to a really important matter.

One of the things that all the members One of the things that all the members like about Joseph is that he is a game-loser. He makes a hard fight, but he accepts defeat with the best possible grace and without a trace of resentment. He has been fairly consistent in his economy programme until the last few days. He fell from grace, however, when he was persuaded to father a bill for a $20.00 appropriation for a Utah exhibit at Portland during the Lewis and Clark exposition. He admits, however, that he has not much to say in behalf of this measure.

Some of the members got in an argu ome of the members got in an argu-nt the other day over the guilibility the public. One Legislator maintained it the public was naturally suspicious, effered to bet that another member id not sell ten $10 gold pieces for $1 h in a big office building in two ars. The bet was not taken.

McCrea Takes an Oath.

McCrea Takes an Oath.

McCrea of Sait Lake takes a solemn sath at the beginning of every sitting that be will not say a word, but he is seldom able to keep his yow. His long suit is the discovery of amendments in the session laws which have been overlooked by those drawing the bills. He has prevented everal scrious blunders by his habit of prusing the supplementary acts. No one objects to his speeches except himself. They are usually clear, instructive and brief.

Mr. Maughn of Cache is making an enviable record as a mover of the previous question. His formula is:

I think everybody understands this question well enough to vote on it. I therefore move the previous question."

His sense of the fitness of things is thusly endorsed by the House.

Hopes Makes a Motion.

Hopes Makes a Motion.

Mr. Hopes of Juab county actually made a motion the other day. This was an event—if not the event—of the sestion Mr. Hopes occupies the dumb corner. He sits in the seat that was occupier the vars ago by Mr. Johnson of anc county, the silent man of the Fifth membly.

The Senate has assumed an air of con superiority over the House that lundoubtedly be resented by the lat-body and may lead to serious conse-mores. If bills are to be slaughtered revenge the House will get the worst it, as it has two bills to the Senate's

During the week there were twenty-three new bills introduced by the House and the same number by the Senate. The former body passed twenty-one measures and the upper body sixteen, and during the week the approval of the executive was given to six measures. One bill was withdrawn by the House and one rejected, and the Senate rejected one bill. The following is a summary of the progress for the week.

PENSION BILL PASSES.

House Acts on Measure Which Carries $138,250,700.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.-The House passed the pensions appropriation bill carrying $135,250,700. The minority, led by Mr. Underwood, made an ineffectual effort to reduce the aggregate of the appropriation so as to exclude pensions allowed under "order No. 78," which, it was stated, would involve about $1.500.000 It was contended that the order was without authority of law. The minority insisted that the majority should bring in a service pension bill

The bill was passed in the form in which it came from the committee. Under a special rule the House today passed about twenty-five private bills.

Adjournment was taken until noon tomorrow, when memorial services in honor of the late Senator Quay of Pennsylva nta will be held.

Mr. Wadsworth (N. DEMOCRAT GETS POSTMASTERSHIP

Though a Republican Wanted It.

Congressman Howell Makes Trouble in Gunnison Appointment.

Parker Supporter Favored for Office in Order to Spite Men Who Bolted Livingston.

Congressman Joseph Howell has stirred ip another hornet's nest in Gunnison Sanpete county, by recommending for postmaster of Gunnison a dyed-in-the wool Democrat and a comparatively new resident over a Republican applicant, the widow of an active party man and she serself a staunch Republican, and a heavy taxpaver

The man who received the Congress man's indorsement is Paul Von Nordeck a druggist, who not only displayed Parker thographs in his window but who is beleved to have supported the greater part of the local Democratic tickets.

His opponent was Elizabeth Roberts the was indorsed by the Gunnison preinct Republican chairman and secretary. William Metcalf and Reuben Christensen, respectively, and by a number of other active Republicans, including Helena Kearns, the retiring postmistress. Protest was also filed against the appoint-Howell was fortified by the indorsement of County Chairman Anderson of Manti and other Republicans and Democrats, and he replied to the friends of Mrs. Roberts that he was guided by the recom-mendation of the county chairman in such matters.

"The office is not one to fight over," remarked a citizen of Gunnison yesterday, "but Gunnison gave Rooseveit the largest majority in its history last fall, and we have a party pride in having a Republican in charge of the postofice. It will be a shame to have a man filling the office who opposed our President, and it seems to me that Congressman Howell had better have listened to the Gannison organization in this matter rather than act on the suggestion of citizens of Manti. We certainly would not interfere in an appointment for the Manti postofice, and he suggestion of citizens of Manti. We certainly would not interfere in an appointment for the Manti postoffice, and hairman Anderson should not have gone schind the local organization. At the bottom of the Gunnison trouble, it is believed, is the Ericksen-Livingston trouble, it is believed, is the Ericksen-Livingston trouble, it is believed, is the Ericksen-Livingston trouble. It is believed, is the Ericksen-Livingston a large najority—almost as large as it gave Rowevelt. But that fight on Livingston was not a local one. He was cut in every county and almost in every precinct. He was rated as no means fitted for such an office and lost out in a district which Roosevelt carried by 342. Now it is said that as the chief backers of Mrs. Roberts were opposed to Livingston's election that Chairman Anderson, Livingston's close friend, has selzed this epportunities to "get even."

Surprise is expressed that Congressman Howell would put himself in an attitude where he will be obliged to explain why he prefers a Democrat to a Republican when rewards are distributed. It is believed the Gunnison matter will be charged up against the Congressman wito interest.

On cross-examination Dr. Powell admitted that Cody had telegraphed to Mrs. Cody in Denver, when the news of Mrs. Cody in Denver, when the news of Mrs. Thorpe's death had reached him, asking for a temporary truce during the funeral, and that Mrs. Cody had wired back that only a permanent reconciliation would be agreed to by her, and that this telegram was not answered by Col. Cody.

For the defense Maj Lester Walker, ex. Mayor of North Platte, Neb., and so intimate friend of Col. and Mrs. Cody for almost forty years, was called. Smith was placed in fail, but later was released. He was a member of a jury that tried the prisoner a few weeks ago. The jury stood eleven for conviction in the second degree to one for acquittal. "It took the best doctors two years to discover that the kidneys were the real cause of all my trouble. I kept getting weaker and sicker. My weight went down from 20 to 159 pounds. My eyes and skin were yellow, my stomach out of order, and at times the pains in my head and back were almost unbearable. I believed I'd die, and it's a wonder I didn't. They thought I had stomach trouble had treated me for it but I got no better. Finally one doctor decided my kidneys were affected and prescribed Warner's Safe Cure. The good effects were manifest at once, and in three weeks I was completely cured. In four months I had regained my weight and pever felt better in my life. The doctors and my friends were dumfounded at my remarkable recovery, and unite with me in proclaiming Warner's Safe Cure the grandest medicine in the world for curing kidneys.
